Tribal Affairs, Office of Intergovernmental Affairs coordinated and executed the sessions. Accordingly, each Federal agency must have an accountable process to ensure meaningful and timely input by tribal officials in the development of regulatory policies that have tribal implications. While HHS and a number of its operating divisions have established a consultation process, the NIH has not established such a process. | NIH State-of-the-Science Conference: Preventing Alzheimer's Disease and Cognitive Decline | Meeting/Workshop | NIH State-of-the-Science Conference provides a written statement on a controversial medical topic prepared by an independent panel of health professionals free from conflicts of interest on the basis of the results of a systematic literature review, presentations by experts in the field, and public comments and questions. The goals of this conference were to examine the factors associated with an increased or decreased risk of Alzheimer's or cognitive decline and the risks and benefits of proposed interventions to improve or maintain cognitive function. The panel concluded that firm conclusions currently cannot be drawn about the association of any modifiable risk factor with cognitive decline or Alzheimer's. Evidence is insufficient to support the use of pharmaceutical agents or dietary supplements. A large amount of promising research is under way; these efforts should be increased. | AHRQ/CDC/CMS | Accelerate Discovery to Improve Patient Care: Disseminate health information to the public.
