

HIGH-END INSTRUMENTATION GRANT PROGRAM

COUNCIL of COUNCILS MEETING September 5, 2014

MALGORZATA KLOSEK, PhD
Director, Division of Construction and Instruments
ORIP/DPCPSI

PRESENTATION OUTLINE

- Uses of the S10 mechanism
- Goals of S10 Programs
- High-End Instrumentation (HEI) Program
  - Background about the HEI Program
  - Council's question about single receipt date
  - Seek Council members' thoughts

GOALS OF S10 PROGRAMS

- To fund grants to purchase expensive instruments to support & enhance research of NIH-funded Investigators
- Instruments are to be used on shared-basis
- Commercially available instrumentation

HEI PROGRAM

- Program started in 2002
- Specialized new generation instruments
- Awards: $750K – $2M
- Receipt Date: biannually
- Funding over 2 FYs

HEI PROGRAM

- FY2002 – FY2013
  - 194 awards
  - Total budget: $295M ($24.5M / year)
- FY2014
  - 16 awards
  - Budget: $24.5M

HEI: % REQUESTS & AWARDS in FY 02-13

CURRENT HEI PROGRAM

➤ Timeline

- Due date: September 2013
- Review: January-February 2014
- Council: May/June 2014
- Funding cycle: FY2014 (year 1):
Summer 2014
- Funding cycle: FY2015 (year 2):
Fall 2014 – Summer 2015

HEI: ANNUAL RECEIPT DATE?

Ramifications:

- Every year, award the same # of grants
- Over 2 years, award the same # of grants
- However, somewhat different grants may be awarded

HEI: ANNUAL RECEIPT DATE?

- Changes that are unknown:
  - Number of applications
  - Resubmission rate

THANK YOU!

YOUR COMMENTS?